THE COLLEGE

The College is named after St. Peter, the apostle of peace and harmony. St. Peter's College is located at Kolenchery approximately 30 kilometers east of Kochi. Kolenchery was once a remote village with educationally backward inhabitants. The starting of the college was a boon to the rustic inhabitants of the locality. Besides producing thousands of graduates and postgraduates, uplifting the educationally backward people, the college has been the cause of ushering a new look to Kolenchery with many business establishments, banks, government offices and even a Medical College, and made it a beautiful township. The well-wishers of the college believe that the phenomenal growth of this institution is due to the invisible blessings of our Patron Saints, St. Peter and St. Paul. Eversince its beginning in 1964, the college management and the staff, through their consistent and untiring efforts, have produced citizens excelled as administrators, executives, clergymen, businessmen, doctors, engineers, lawyers and a host of other professionals. The college is affiliated to Mahatma Gandhi University and is accredited with 'A' Grade by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council of the U.G.C.

The college started functioning in July 1964 with five batches of Pre-Degree students. It earned a good reputation in a short span of time and its fame spread all over Kerala, and produced international sports persons and academicians, all in quick succession that the college was upgraded as a Degree College in 1967. It has the rare privilege of starting undergraduate courses in eight subjects in that year itself. The college became a post graduate institution in 1982 with the beginning of M.Sc. course in Botany. It now offers Degree Programmes in Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Botany, Zoology, Economics, History, Politics, Malayalam, English, Hindi, Commerce, BLISc and B.Com-Tax (SF), B.Com Computer Science (SF), Post Graduate Programmes conducted in the college are Botany, Mathematics, Commerce, English, Bio-Technology, and Tourism Administration (SF), M.Sc. Chemistry (SF). The college offers the professional course BLISc also. The college at present has a student strength of 2046 There are 100 members on the Teaching Staff and 38 members on the Non-Teaching Staff.

OUR COLLEGE ANTHEM

The wise are always glorious.
As learning makes the wise enormous.
Praise thee learners the shrine.
That imparts souls wisdom to shine

In this temple built on rocks
By Saint Peter's grace on flocks
Fill us all in with virtues worths
Shepherding the imploring minds in truth.

OUR VISION

The St Peter's College aims at pursuing academic excellence by providing value based quality education of the highest order to build up character and instil moral and spiritual values for attaining fullness of life.

OUR MISSION

Our Mission is to achieve the vision by

- a) Developing professional competence among students
- b) Providing special care to the weaker sections of the society
- c) Promoting Research Programmes
- d) The optimum use of information and communication technology (ICT)
- e) Imparting new vistas of knowledge relevant to changing global scenario

The college seeks to address the need of the hour by trying to mould world class citizens with highest intellectual acumen, emotional balance, spiritual strength and physical training.

MOTTO

“The Wise shall inherit Glory”, The college aims at imparting wisdom to the students enabling them to inherit glory in their lives.

MANAGEMENT.

The College derives its inspiration from St. Peter's & St. Paul's Orthodox Syrian Church, Kolenchery. It was in the meeting held on 9th February 1964 at this church the idea of applying for a Junior College in Kolenchery was mooted. A committee consisting of Sri. C.P. Issac

(Chairman) Sri. P.M. Paily Pillai (Secretary) and Sri. C. V. Jacob (Treasurer) was authorised to proceed with the dream project. Sanction for a Junior College came through the letter No. G C2/2879/63 dated 1-7-1964. The College is managed by the St. Peter's College Trust, a society registered under the Travancore Cochin Literary Scientific and Charitable Societies Registration Act of 1955. The sincere and dedicated leadership given in the past by people like Sri. M. Chacko Pillai, Sri. K.V. Thomas, Sri. N.P. Varghese, Sri. P.M. Paily Pillai, Sri. C.P. Issac, Sri. K.E. Issac, Sri. K.P. Paulose, Sri. E.M. Varkey, Sri. Kuriakose Chennakkaden, Dr. C.T. George etc. had made St. Peter's college, a reputed educational Institution.

The present office bearers of the College Trust are

Sri. Babu Paul (Chairman)

Dr. Viju Jacob (Secretary)

Dr. Sasi Eloor (Treasurer)

INFRASTRUCTURAL FACILITIES

ATTENDANCE & LEAVE OF ABSENCE

- 1) Attendance shall be marked at the beginning of each class, whether lecture, practical, composition or tutorial by the member of the staff handling the class.
- 2) Students should occupy their respective seats before attendance is taken. They should not leave the class room nor should latecomers enter the class room without the permission of the member of staff handling of the class. Only those students who are present at the time of marking attendance and who continue to be in the class until the teacher demands the presence of the students are entitled to be marked present during that hour.
- 3) For purpose of attendance the days that will be taken into account are those marked as working days in the college calendar or else otherwise notified by the Principal.
4. A working day is divided into two sessions- morning and afternoon. The morning session has three periods, and the afternoon session two periods, each of one hour duration normally. Thus, there are in total five periods in a day, each of one hour's duration unless otherwise declared by the Principal. The beginning and the end of a period shall be indicated by the ringing of the college bell. No student shall absent himself from class without leave. Absence in any one of the hours in a session shall result in the loss of half a day's attendance. Consequently, absence in any one of the periods in the morning session and any one of the periods in the afternoon session shall result in the loss of a full day's attendance.
5. Students should get 75% of the attendance of the number of working days as per the time table prescribed by his specific programmed in his department per semester and should they fall short the deficiency will be condoned as per the university norms only where the absence was for medical reasons. The University does not permit the condonation of deficiency beyond 10 days in a semester and hence the college shall permit students to condone absence only up to 10 days. Again, following University norms condonation will not be permitted more than two times in any programme of study.
6. Students absenting themselves without leave for more than 10 CONTINUOUS WORKING DAYS at a stretch will have their names removed from the rolls. They may be readmitted at the discretion of the Principal in which case they will have to remit all the college and university fees due; before they are readmitted.

7. Students should not absent themselves from the class without prior leave of absence from the concerned teacher in charge. A student coming to the class late without leave or who leaves the classroom before the end of the period without permission from the teacher shall lose half a day's attendance.
8. If leave of absence is required for a single hour application may be submitted to the member of the staff handling the class during the hour.
9. If leave of absence is required for any one of the sessions the student should appear in person before the Heads of the Departments concerned, and get the application for leave of absence recommended by them.
10. Application for leave should be made in the form given at the end of the calendar through the recommending authority by the student himself beforehand except in unavoidable and unforeseen circumstances. Then the application should be made on the very day of the return to the college.
11. Students attending the programmes of the University Students' Union or any such programmes should request for permission beforehand, in writing, to the Principal, which should be recommended by her/his Head of the Department. Benefit of attendance may be granted to students attending university/college union/co-curricular activities by treating them as present for the days of absence, on production of participation/attendance certificates, within one week, from competent authorities and endorsed by the head of the institution. This is limited to a maximum of 10 days per semester and this benefit shall be considered for internal assessment also.
12. Disciplinary action including imposing of fine will be taken against those who repeatedly absent themselves on insufficient grounds,
13. Those students receiving scholarships from governmental or non-governmental agencies for which a minimum percentage of attendance has been prescribed, attendance certificates shall be issued, based only on the actual attendance they have obtained. Neither the college authorities nor the Principal or any other members of the staff can be held responsible in the event of the student losing her/his scholarship for lack of attendance.

14. The actual attendance of the student and the percentage thereon shall be notified on the notice board of the college every month. It is the sole responsibility of the student to monitor his/her attendance percentage and to take steps to rectify anomalies, if any. Any student who has a grievance regarding the attendance marked, may lodge a complaint with the concerned member on the staff who marked the attendance during that period or with the class teacher. If he/she is not satisfied with the outcome, a complaint may be lodged with the Head of the Department. Further complaint redressals, if needed, can be lodged before the Attendance Committee constituted at the college (whose constitution shall be notified in the college calendar), before the Principal or before the University authorities as stipulated by the University.
15. Calling for strikes are not permitted in the college campus (see section 10 of Page no. 28 and section 5 of page 33). A student who is not present in the class during calls of strike by himself or anyone else, whether called by individuals or organisations including students' unions, would be deemed to have joined the strike and hence shall be marked absent.

Internet facilities are also available in the library and are open to all the members of the library. Users are keeping up to date by using available online journals in their area of interest.

USE OF THE LIBRARY

As the library is a place of individual study and research, the members should so conduct themselves inside the library as to maintain an atmosphere conducive to it. Members have the privilege of direct access to the shelves in the stack room and the reading halls and the freedom to browse among the books. It is important that the classified arrangement of books according to their numbers is maintained in the shelves for the convenience of the members themselves. Books can be freely taken out of the shelves, but on no account they could be re-shelved by the members because of the danger of misplacement. The library provides computer based Online Public Access Catalogue (OPAC) for searching documents available in the library. Readers can consult with this computerized catalogue (OPAC) for knowing the required book of his/ her is available or not. For better use of the library, members can seek the help of library staff.

GENERAL RULES

- The privilege of borrowing books from the Library is restricted to the members only.
- Library Member ID Card is not transferable.
- Members shall observe silence in the reading halls.
- Members shall not engage in conversation in any part of the Library so as to cause annoyance to any other reader.
- Members shall not smoke, or spit in any part of the Library.
- Members shall not write upon, damage or mark any book belonging to the Library.
- Members are responsible for any damage caused by them to the books or any other property belonging to the Library and shall be required to pay the penalty imposed upon them by the Librarian.
- Members shall not bring personal belongings and Library books issued to them inside the Library.
- The Librarian reserves the right to suspend the membership of any member found misbehaving, abusing the library staff or behaving in an indecent manner.
- The members caught for tearing pages/ stealing of books will be suspended forthwith from using the library facilities.
